

CODE BLUE

A collaborative response to support people rough sleeping during extreme weather

SURAYA NAIDOO | Department for Communities and Social Inclusion
ROBYN SUTHERLAND | Uniting Communities

HOMELESSNESS SERVICES IN INNER-CITY ADELAIDE

THE FIRST CODE BLUE

THE FIRST CODE BLUE

Dr Alice Clark @DrAliceClark · 5 Jul 2016

Great to hear the bus station will be open all week thank you for advocacy
@marshall_steven @bradchilcott @SACOSS @Dianah_SA @JayWeatherill

2

11

13

Dianah Mieglich

@Dianah_SA

Follow

Replying to @DrAliceClark

Excellent outcome but should be triggered by a mechanism other than advocacy in this way. Maybe a glitch on this occasion?

AN ACT OF COLLABORATION

Government of South Australia

CITY OF ADELAIDE

ANGLICARE SA

THE PEOPLE ASSISTED

FIRST CODE BLUE

activated for 9 nights in
July 2016

128

PEOPLE SHELTERED

28%

WERE KNOWN TO THE HOMELESSNESS
SERVICES

MOST RECENT CODE BLUE

activated for 2 nights in August 2017

38

PEOPLE SHELTERED

79%

WERE KNOWN TO THE HOMELESSNESS
SERVICES

THE KEY INGREDIENTS

- 1 Political leadership – Premier, Minister, Mayor
- 2 Community expectation and involvement
- 3 Innovative responsive partnership