

Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions are listed below:

1. By submission of an abstract, the author(s) understand that:
 - while they retain ownership of copyright of their presentation, AHURI may publish their abstract, PowerPoint presentation and/or any biographical information in the conference pocket program, media releases, and on the conference website, portal and/or app;
 - their presentation may be filmed and/or audio recorded and may be made available after the presentation and conference;
 - their final PowerPoint presentation will be collected prior to the conference and uploaded to the website after the conference; and
 - their final PowerPoint presentation will be collected prior to the conference and uploaded to the conference virtual portal and app.
2. Acceptance is conditional on registration as a delegate for all presenters listed in the invitation to present the Abstract. Authors who will not be presenting or will not be attending the conference do not have to register.
3. Presenters must register as a delegate by 21 May 2023 and have paid for their registration no later than 7 June 2023 if selecting the invoice option.
4. Presenters will be granted a special Speaker Registration Fee equivalent to the special low Super Saver Registration Fee. Speakers will be sent registration details upon acceptance of the invitation.
5. Presenters acknowledge that if they have not registered by 21 May 2023 and paid by 7 June 2023, AHURI is able to withdraw the invitation to present at the conference.
6. Presenters are responsible for their own travel, accommodation, and incidentals in respect to attending the conference.
7. AHURI reserves the right to invite one person to present at the conference even if the Abstract lists a panel or numerous presenters.
