Day 1 Wednesday 28 August 2019

7.30 Registration opens

8.30-10.30 Plenary 1

Welcome to Country

Larrakia Nation

The Larrakia people are the Aboriginal traditional owners of all land and waters of the greater Darwin area including identified Aboriginal living areas.

Official Conference Opening

Hon Gerald McCarthy MP, Minister for Local Government, Housing and Community Development (NT)

To set the scene for the first ever conference in the NT, the Minister will speak to the Territory Labor Government's priorities around jobs, housing and improving economic opportunities for communities in the territory.

Opening Keynote Address

Professor Stan Grant, Griffith University

Proud Wiradjuri man Stan Grant is a Walkley award winning journalist, author and professor of global studies at Griffith University. His knowledge and experience render him an ideal contributor on Indigenous housing and many of the broader political and social challenges facing our sector in 2019.

Federal Government Address

To guide the national dialogue on priority housing and homelessness issues, and following the 2019 election, we will welcome a Federal Government leader.

National Housing Conference 2019

27–30 August | Darwin Convention Centre

Day 1 (continued) Wednesday 28 August 2019

11.00–12.30 Major concurrent sessions—block one
Can CHP's deliver our social housing future? According to recent modelling, Australia needs more than 700,000 new social housing properties in the next twenty years to meet growing demand. In this provocative session, community housing leaders will press the case for their skilled up sector to lead the development, construction and management of Australia's social housing stock into the future. Speakers Wendy Hayhurst, CHIA John McBryde, Central Australian Affordable Housing Company Rebecca Oelkers, BHC Adrian Warner, WA Department of Communities Additional speakers TBC	Generation Rent More than a quarter of all Australian households are private renters, with the sector growing at twice the rate of all households between 2006 and 2016. Along with growth, the sector is fragmenting, particularly at the low-price end of the market. How can we ensure the system remains fair and equitable for the growing number of Australians who will be renters for life? Speakers Prof Kath Hulse, Swinburne University of Technology Peter McMillan, NT Shelter Heather Holst, Commissioner for Residential Tenancies VIC Eliza Owen, Domain Thomas Clement, myRent.co.nz Penny Carr, Tenants Queensland Additional speakers TBC	Pathways and priorities for Australia's Indigenous housing Appropriate and affordable housing is a vital foundation for wellbeing that supports education and employment pathways, yet many Indigenous Australians still face overwhelming housing challenges. With housing identified as a priority for a renewed Closing the Gap strategy, this panel will unpack the common challenges across Australian states and territories and explore the priorities and pathways ahead. Speakers Leeanne Caton, Yilli Rreung Housing Aboriginal Corporation Jody Broun, Aboriginal Housing Office NSW Shona Reid, Reconciliation SA Darren Smith, Aboriginal Housing Victoria Additional speakers TBC	Think tank stream These rapid-fire presentations and incubators will offer a variety of intimate, engaging and informal discussions with fellow delegates and speakers on a diverse range of topics.
12.30–13.30 Lunch
13.30 – 15.00 Plenary 2—State(s) of housing policy—a national debate
A national debate on Australia's housing system with perspectives from every state and territory. In 2019 more than a million households in Australia are under housing stress. In this action-led session, housing chief executives from all state and territory housing departments will discuss a strategy for housing future communities across the country.

National Housing Conference 2019

27–30 August | Darwin Convention Centre

Day 2 (continued) Thursday 29 August 2019

13.30–15.00 Major concurrent sessions—block two
Dollars to dwellings: Financing affordable housing One year on, is the National Housing Finance and Investment Corporation the silver bullet to financing affordable housing or is it just one piece of an incomplete financing and funding puzzle. Even with private sector financing, what role must governments play in funding the gap between the cost of building affordable housing and what low-income tenants can afford to pay? Speakers Nathan Dal Bon, NHFIC Caryn Kakas, ANZ Charles Northcote, Blue CHP Prof Bill Randolph, UNSW Nicola Lemon, Hume Community Housing Association Stephen Anthony, Industry Super Australia	Indigenous housing and health The intersection between housing and health is well recognised. Unsafe or poor quality housing can have a detrimental impact on the physical and mental health of communities and individuals. This presents opportunities and challenges for providing services to Indigenous communities in the Territory and across regional Australia. This series of evidence-based presentations, followed by a panel, will explore the issues, and evidence-based solutions that are being put into practice. Speakers Sarah Pollock, Mind Australia Oiga Havnen, Danila Dilba Health Service Additional speakers TBC	Housing for all in the age of cities Following worldwide trends of rapid urbanisation and centralisation of all aspects of life and work, Australians are living in urban areas at higher rates than ever before. What is the impact of population growth on our housing system, services and suburbs? How can we ensure Australia's swelling major and developing cities remain productive and liveable for all Australians? Speakers Lucinda Hartley, Neighbourlytics Prof Chris Leishman, University of Adelaide Additional speakers TBC	Think tank stream These rapid-fire presentations and incubators will offer a variety of intimate, engaging and informal discussions with fellow delegates and speakers on a diverse range of topics.
