Housing
Conference

Day 1 (continued) Wednesday 28 August 2019

10.10–10.40 Morning tea

Entertainment by Patsy Coleman

10.40–12.10 Major concurrent sessions—block one

MAJ 1 Can CHPs deliver our social housing future?

Auditorium 1 & 2

According to recent modelling, Australia needs more than 700,000 new social housing properties in the next twenty years to meet growing demand. In this provocative session, community housing leaders will press the case for their skilled up sector to lead the development, construction and management of Australia's social housing stock into the future.

Facilitator

Carrie Hamilton, Housing Action Network

Speakers

Charles Northcote, BlueCHP

Wendy Hayhurst, CHIA

John McBryde, Central Australian Affordable Housing Company

Rebecca Oelkers, BHC

Amy McDowell, Department of Health and Human Services VIC

Kelvin Ryan, Simonds Group

Sponsored by:

MAJ 2 Generation rent

Meeting Rooms 1 & 2

More than a quarter of all Australian households are private renters, with the sector growing at twice the rate of all households between 2006 and 2016. Along with growth, the sector is fragmenting, particularly at the low-price end of the market. How can we ensure a fair and equitable system for the growing number of Australians who will be renters for life?

Facilitator

Eliza Owen, Domain

Speakers

Prof Kath Hulse, Swinburne University of Technology

Heather Holst, Commissioner for Residential Tenancies VIC

Thomas Clement, myRent.co.nz

Penny Carr, Tenants Queensland

Diana Callebaut, Cbus

Sponsored by:

MAJ 3 Pathways and priorities for Australia's Indigenous housing

Waterfront Rooms

Appropriate and affordable housing is a vital foundation for wellbeing that supports education and employment pathways, yet many Indigenous Australians still face overwhelming housing challenges. With housing identified as a priority for a renewed Closing the Gap strategy, this panel will unpack the common challenges across Australian states and territories and explore the priorities and pathways ahead.

Facilitator

Robert Griew, NOUS Group

Speakers

Leeanne Caton, Yilli Rreung Housing Aboriginal Corporation

Jody Broun, Aboriginal Housing Office NSW

Shona Reid, Reconciliation SA

Darren Smith, Aboriginal Housing Victoria

Sponsored by:

Day 3 Friday 30 August 2019

8.00 Registration opens

8.30-10.30 Plenary 4

Four Nations: Perspectives from Ireland, New Zealand, Canada and Australia

What can Australia learn from likeminded countries when it comes to national approaches to housing our communities? Canada has a similar federated system of government and a national strategy, Ireland has responded to the Global Financial Crisis with the ambitious 'Re-build Ireland' program and New Zealand is embarking on a Wellbeing Budget, putting vulnerable people at its centre. In this fascinating international plenary panel, hear about each country's national approach to housing before we examine lessons to be learned for Australia.
